

GREETINGS:

As a part of our ongoing strategy to increase stakeholder and member engagement, and to communicate ideas & strategies, Build Together will be blogging on various topics throughout the year. We will host guest bloggers and include updates on our Build Together initiatives across the country.

Here is the link to the blog: <http://buildtogether.ca/blog/>

And a direct link to the first blog post: <http://buildtogether.ca/change-agent-change/>

If you would like to subscribe to the blog, enter your email address in the “connect with us” section on the right side panel of the website. Otherwise, you can expect to find a new post once or twice per month on the website.

Feel free to distribute amongst your networks! And if you have any ideas or topics you would like addressed on the blog- let me know. Perhaps you'd like to be a guest blogger!

Best,

Lindsay Amundsen
