10. Promotions

- 10.01. In making promotions to vacant jobs coming within the jurisdiction of the Union, the required knowledge and skills (behavioural and technical) contained in the job posting shall be the primary considerations. Where two (2) or more applicants are equally qualified to fulfill the duties of the job, seniority shall be the determining factor.
- 10.02. Employees, upon promotion in or outside the scope of this Agreement, shall have a trial period of three (3) months, with the Company reserving the right in certain instances to extend this period to a maximum of one (1) year. In the event that the trial period is extended, the employee and the Union shall be advised of the Company's reasons.
- 10.03. During the trial period of three (3) months, an employee may revert to his former job or may be reverted by the Company. If the trial period is extended, the Company may revert an employee to his former job, or to an equivalent job for which he is qualified, at not less than the regular rate of pay which he received in the former job. No posting shall be required to complete such reversion.
- 10.04. Employees shall be eligible to apply for jobs not coming within the scope of this Agreement and shall receive consideration in accordance with their qualifications, experience and seniority. However, nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to bind the Company to appoint an employee to a job which does not come within the scope of this Agreement.
- 10.05. Any employee having the seniority and qualifications to fill a higher vacant job and who, for any reason, declines or refuses to accept such job when it is offered to him in writing, shall become junior in seniority to the employee who is appointed. This clause shall not apply to a temporary job of less than one (1) week.

11.* Layoffs and Rehires

- 11.01. If permanent staff are to be reduced, the Company shall first determine the number of jobs to be reduced within each class code. Except as specifically provided in 11.05.,

those employees who were last appointed to a class to be reduced, shall be the first employees removed from such class for the purposes of layoff, provided those remaining in the class are qualified and capable to perform the duties of the remaining jobs in the class.

Non-permanent employees belonging to the class to be reduced shall be laid off prior to the removal of permanent employees from the class.

The Company may reach out to more senior employees to offer severance as per Article 11.20.

11.02.* Reversion

11.02.01.All employees who chose to revert into a different class code will be paid the rate of pay of the class code that they have been reverted to. Red circling as referenced in Article 3.15 will not apply in these cases.

11.02.02. If an employee was promoted or laterally transferred into a permanent job within a class to be reduced in accordance with 11.01., such employee may, at his option, revert to a permanent job within the class formerly occupied by the employee, provided that he is qualified and capable of performing the duties of the job, and provided that such job is within the jurisdiction of Local 1007 I.B.E.W.

11.02.03. If a permanent employee has accepted a lower rate of pay than the rate of his former job as a result of commencement on an apprenticeship program, and the apprentice job is abolished in accordance with 11.01., such employee may, at his option, revert to a permanent job within the class formerly occupied by the employee, provided that he is qualified and capable of performing the duties of the job, and provided that such job is within the jurisdiction of Local 1007 I.B.E.W.

11.02.04 If a permanent employee was demoted into a job within a class to be reduced in accordance with 11.01., such employee may revert to a permanent job within the class formerly occupied by the employee, provided he is qualified and capable of performing the duties of the job, unless the employee had been demoted for disciplinary reasons from such job, or if he had been demoted from his former job for such other reasons the Company determines would constitute it inadvisable to return him to his former job.

11.02.05. The Company shall determine which permanent job will be assigned to a permanent employee upon his reversion to his former class.

11.02.06. Employees, who voluntarily demote from a class where a primary function is supervision, shall not be eligible to revert.

11.02.07. An eligible permanent employee, removed from a class for the purpose of layoff, who elects not to revert to a job within his former class, shall be laid off from the Company

- 11.03. Where reversion is not available to a permanent employee who is removed from a class, the Company shall attempt to assign such employee to any vacant alternate job, within the same Company, that he is qualified for and capable of performing in accordance with his jurisdictional seniority.

The Company shall determine whether a permanent employee is qualified for and capable of performing the duties of an alternate job and shall identify which alternate job, if any, shall be assigned to the permanent employee. The Company shall review the qualifications and capabilities of the employee with the Union prior to his assignment to an alternate job. A permanent employee shall not be eligible for assignment to an alternate job, if such assignment results in an increase to the regular rate of pay to the employee.

- 11.04.* If a permanent employee is not eligible for reversion, or assignment to an alternate job in accordance with 11.03, the Company shall attempt, prior to his layoff, to assign the employee to an alternate job for which he is qualified and capable within the Utility Worker class within the Company in accordance with his jurisdictional seniority.

An employee, who is removed from the Utility Worker class as a result of the placement of an employee more senior than himself, shall be treated in accordance with the applicable provisions governing layoffs, rehires, and severance.

- 11.05. If the permanent staff of the Utility Worker class is to be reduced, permanent employees shall be removed from the class in the reverse order of their jurisdictional seniority.

- 11.06.* Employees who have been laid off will be given the option to accept severance as per article 11.20 or go on the recall list as per article 11.09.

- 11.07.* Permanent employees to be laid off from permanent jobs shall receive a minimum of fourteen (14) calendar days' notice of such layoff. This notice period is included within the calculation for severance as outlined in Article 11.20.

- 11.08.* Permanent employees to be laid off, who decide not to accept severance, shall be placed on a recall list given a general priority throughout the Company for any vacancy for which they are qualified. The general priority shall not override the rehire provisions or the provisions of 10.01. "Promotions".

- 11.09.* If the permanent staff of a Company is to be increased, those permanent employees removed, in accordance with the layoff provisions, from the class to be increased shall, if available, be recalled according to the reverse order of their removal from such class, provided they are qualified and capable of performing the duties of the job and did not accept Severance.

For permanent employees retained in a previous class or reassigned to an alternate job, this right to a single recall is indefinite. For permanent employees actually laid off from the service, this right to a single recall expires at twelve (12) months or less (see 13.07.04.). Where an employee accepts a temporary assignment to a job in his former class his right to recall shall be extended by the duration of the assignment. Such employees removed in accordance with the layoff procedures shall be re-engaged in preference to other applicants.

11.10. Laid off permanent employees who are rehired within their recall period shall be re-engaged as permanent employees. Such employees shall retain the benefits provided by the current Agreement which were enjoyed prior to layoff, with the exception of seniority, which shall be governed by the provisions of 13.07.04.

11.11. Except as provided in 11.05, a permanent employee's date of appointment into a job shall be, for layoff and rehire purposes, the date that the employee was originally appointed to a permanent job within the class to be reduced.

However, a permanent employee's date of appointment into a dual trades class shall be for layoff and rehire purposes, the date that the employee was originally appointed to a permanent job within the employee's first trades class.

In the event of a reduction of a job within a dual trade class, a dually qualified employee may use his seniority to displace the most junior employee in either of the single trades' classes for which he is dually qualified.

11.12. Under no circumstances shall an employee's date of appointment be established as a date prior to his jurisdictional seniority.

11.13. The date that an employee is reverted to a job within his former class in accordance with 11.02., shall not be considered the employee's date of appointment to such job.

11.14. When an employee attains journeyman status in a trades class, his date of appointment to such class shall be backdated to include his apprenticeship service, to a maximum of four (4) years, for the purpose of layoffs and rehires only.

11.15. Where two (2) or more employees have the same date of appointment to the same class, the relative order that such employees are removed from such class, in accordance with 11.01., shall be based on their jurisdictional seniority.

11.16. Apprentice jobs shall not be considered to be trades classes for the purpose of applying the layoff and rehire procedure. Employees occupying jobs within trades' classes shall not be eligible to revert to apprentice jobs.

11.17. Should an apprentice attain journeyman status in a class previously reduced, and the job is retained, the new journeyman will be retained in the class unless there is a senior permanent employee with recall rights to that class. If the new journeyman cannot be retained in that class he will be removed and subject to the layoff process.

11.18.* Meeting with the Union

11.18.01. The Company agrees to provide the Union with as much advance notice in writing as possible of technological or other changes which may occur in the future whereby jobs will be changed or abolished.

11.18.04.  Prior to recall notices being issued the Company shall meet with the Union to discuss the circumstances giving rise to the recall.*

11.19. Job Security

The amount of Severance Pay shall not be less than four (4) weeks' notice or pay in lieu of notice.

The amount of Severance Pay shall not exceed fifty-two (52) weeks' notice or pay in lieu of notice.
